Videotaping and/or Photographing Students Policy – Handbook

Video and/or Photographing of Students The Diocese and Schools of the Diocese of Joliet allow positive publicity of students using videos, digital images, photographs and web publications within the context of this agreement.

Video recording and/or photographing may be used in and by the Diocese and Schools of the Diocese as a facet of instruction for enhancing learning, to share information, to promote the school, to assist in providing a safe and secure learning environment, and to monitor/record student activities.

Such video recording/photography may be announced or unannounced and will be conducted according to Diocesan guidelines. However, the Diocese and Schools of the Diocese do not approve of the display of any videos, digital images, photographs on social networking or video sharing sites, such as YouTube, Snapchat, Instagram, without the expressed permission of the administrator and all parties involved.

The term “video sharing sites” does not include Zoom or Microsoft Teams. Videos, photographs, and digital images of students may be utilized by teachers, administrators, or their designee within the Diocese and/or School for classroom instructional purposes without advance consent of a student’s parent/guardian.

Such School and or Diocesan staff shall maintain the confidentiality of these student records in accordance with state and federal laws and the established Diocesan student record procedures. Photographs or videos of students posted on the School website shall not be captioned with the student’s full name or identify the student by name in any manner.

Disclosure of student information will be limited to first name and last initial. No image of a student may be posted in such a way that the image of that student may be linked to or associated with the student’s full name.

A student teacher under the supervision of a college/university, or other certified staff member may utilize videos, photographs, or digital images of students for his/her own professional use without the advance consent of a student’s parent/guardian. Examples of educational videos/photographs include documenting science experiments, presentations, etc. A release form is required from the parent/guardian when students participating in class activities with a student teacher are video recorded or photographed for purposes of assessment of teaching as part of the university class assignment and/or student teaching portfolio development. Students under the supervision of the administrator/teacher or approved designee by St. Jude Catholic School, may video or photograph students without the advance consent of a student’s parent/guardian for educational purposes, to promote the school/school activities and to enhance learning. Examples: yearbook, school paper, sports games, etc.

Forms of release for video recording and photographing of students are not required from the parent/guardian when:

- A student has voluntarily chosen or been allowed by his/her parent/guardian to participate in, or be a spectator at, a school-related activity that is open to the public such as an athletic event, concert, theatrical presentation, dance, etc.
- The student has chosen to be an officially designated school leader or role model, such as athlete, student council leader, etc. for which there is potential for informal contact with news media. Stock videotape footage or generic pictures. (i.e. yearbook individual and group pictures) are being obtained in public places. (i.e. hallways, gymnasiums, general classroom areas, playgrounds, athletic fields, etc.) by the Diocese and/or School.
- Outside news media video record or photograph students in areas that cannot be effectively shielded from the public, such as playgrounds, parking lots, athletic fields, etc. Video cameras are in use to monitor public areas of a school/church facility or bus.
- No individual, parent, student, or family member is permitted to video, record or photograph any Remote Learning or At-Home Learning classes, conferences with teachers, or meetings with staff of St. Jude Catholic School without the express written consent from St. Jude Catholic School. All At-Home Learning including any video recording or photographs are owned by St. Jude Catholic School and cannot be recorded or photographed without the express written consent of St. Jude Catholic School.
